Colo-Pac is a third generation tomato wholesaler/re-packer for the Denver area, and Rocky Mountain Region. Tomatoes of many varieties are available year around from growing regions throughout the United States, Mexico, and select Hot Houses. We bring the very best tomatoes into Denver from the finest growers.

We can package tomatoes to your specifications, with your label or our own Snappy Chef brand. We pack for color and grade based on our customer's requirements. We also handle and are a certified re-packer of Organic tomatoes. Our facilities are AIB "Superior" rated and third party audited by Davis Fresh Technologies.

We provide transportation brokerage under the trade name 'Good Service Trucking'. Our family's 80+ years of service in the fresh produce industry gives us good insight into the produce transportation needs of our area.
